This document is released with deletions. On page 1, the deleted portions in line 1 of paragraph 1, lines 1, 4, 5, 10, 11, and 12 of paragraph 2, and the deleted portions of the enclosure references contain names of specific individuals. The deleted portion on line 9 contains the address of one of the individuals mentioned above. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(D), because release would disclose the identity of a confidential source. The deleted portion in paragraph 2 on line 1 and 3 consists of confidential information pertaining to one of the confidential sources. This portion is exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(C), because release would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The deleted portions in lines 6, 7, and 8 in paragraph 2, and line 1 in paragraph 3 consist of confidential information, including medical references, pertaining to the individual in question. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6)(7)(C), because release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

The deleted portions in line 1 in paragraph 1, on page 2, consist of specific names of individuals, which if released would disclose the identity of a confidential source. This portion is exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(D). The deleted portions in sentences 2-6 and part of 7 consist of confidential information pertaining to the individual in question. Release of this portion would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This portion is exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6). Part of the deleted portions in sentence 7 and all deletions in sentence 8 consist of the name of a specific individual and confidential information pertaining to that person. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(C)(D), because release would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy and disclose the identity of a confidential source. Deletions in paragraph 2 consist of names of specific individuals, which if released would disclose the identity of confidential sources. This portion is exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(D). The deleted portions in lines 1-4 in paragraph 3 consist of names of specific individuals and addresses, which if released would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy and disclose the identity of confidential sources.

These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(C)(D). The deletions in sentence 8 of paragraph 3 consist of confidential information pertaining to the individual in question. This portion is exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6)(7)(C), because release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The deleted portions in paragraph 4 consist of names of four specific individuals and identifying characteristics, which if released would disclose the identity of a confidential source. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(D). The deleted portions in sentences 1-3 in paragraph 5 consist of names of specific individuals, which if released would identify a confidential source. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(D). The deletions found in sentences 5-9 in paragraph 5 consist of confidential information pertaining to two specific individuals. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6)(7)(C), because release of these portions would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The deleted portions in paragraphs 6 and 7 consist of names of specific individuals, which if released would disclose the identity of a confidential source. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(D). In paragraph 4, on page 3, deletions on lines 3, 6, and part of 4, and lines 1, 2, 4, 6, and part of 3, in paragraph 5, consist of names of specific individuals, which if released would disclose the identity of a confidential source. These portions are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)(D). The remaining deleted portions in paragraph 4, found on lines 4 and 5, consist of confidential medical referenced information. This portion is exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6), because release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The remaining deleted portions found in paragraph 5 on line 3 consist of confidential information. the 7100 to 7300 block of Jeffrey Blvd. This man was described as 26 years old, 190 lbs., 6'0" height, white, brown eyes and (I thought black hair with light complexion. He was born on 5/25/35 in Pennsylvania and gave his residence as 3100 Liverpool Rd., Gary, Ind. Justin stated that he was the manager of some business at 1126 N. State St. Except for the black hair the rest of the description seemed to fit Roy Justin with whom we are concerned. It was dark when this arrest took place as near as I could interpret the ticket.

There was another file for a Roy Justine of 1260 N. Astor St., Chicago, Illinois in connection with assault on 8/26/61. File #RD249494. Further follow up in this case disclosed it was a Roy Justin who complained as a victim of a strong arm robbery and assault. Interviewed by police at Passavant Memorial Hospital, Chicago, Ill. he gave his residence as Dearborn 7-8245 and business phone as Ta 9-6212. He listed his occupation as a salesman. Justin was lacerated on the left side of the mouth and reported a loss of his wallet with $80, a Pennsylvania Driver's licence, and registration certificate for his 1958 Volkswagon. He stated that he would be unable to recognize the lone assaillant because he was grabbed from behind.

A police comment on this first report indicated that this was typical of a number of strong arm robberies in which the victim was intoxicated and unable to furnish much information about the robbery. A few days later Justin was interviewed again and changed his story. It was an Indiana licence on the car and the amount of money lost was slightly larger. Whether he indicated more men or not were involved is not clear but at a subsequent showup he tentatively identified three men who were subsequently convicted of a series of strong arm robberies.

Roy Justin, born Burstein (or Bernstein)

Deputy Joneson before attempting the arrest contacted the Chicago Police and learned he was wanted by them in connection with a rape case. This case was the basis for another Federal Warrant #9741 for the Northern Judicial District of Illinois dated 12/27/62, alleging unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for taking indecent liberties with a 23 month old child about 10/21/62 at 19 E. Pearson St., Chicago, Ill. (This was one of the addresses that Pearl Harlan indicated Justin went to after being compelled to leave her home.)

For this reason Joneson took two other deputies with him when he went to Mrs. Harlan's residence and learned that Justin had been gone from there for some time.

Joneson stated that Chicago police detective Sam Greiner of Area 6 Detective Bureau found papers where Justin had been living on Pearson Street indicating he had gone to 3316 San Marino St., Los Angeles, California. Los Angeles police reported Justin was there until November of 1962 and then disappeared. Justin is still a fugitive.

Joneson indicated that he interviewed Joyce Johnson, principal of the Vanderpoel School in Chicago re Justin's attempt to take one of the Harlan girls from the school. Justin was thwarted by the assistant principal of the school who handled the affair, which took place in September or October of 1961.

From some source Joneson learned that Justin was arrested on August 14, 1961 at Evergreen Park, Illinois shortly after leaving the Harlan residence on complaint #7718. He was booked for disorderly conduct consisting of panhandling in that he went into a store operated by a woman and asked for money. She was frightened by the menacing appearance of Justin and fortunately several male customers came in and held him for the arrival of the police. (There is no police report on this phase.) Justin skipped bond, his real name is Roy Burstein and his father is a lawyer in Philadelphia, Pa.

After dictating my report on Pearl Harlan on 2/4/63 I called Chicago Police Headquarters. There I obtained copy of Chicago Police Department Daily Bulletin for 11.13.62. This describes Roy Justin's latest crime and describes him as 27 years old, white male, 6'1" tall, weight 195 lbs. medium build, blond hair, and a blond Van Dyke beard at that time. His occupation is listed as self employed artist and at that time he was staying with an artist.

INTERVIEW WITH FBI

The same date I interviewed agent John E. Whalen of the FBI at their office, 536 S. Clark St., Chicago, Ill. I told him there seemed some possibility that Mrs. Ralph Ojeda according to the story of Mrs. Pearl Harlan, had previous knowledge that Roy Justin was an escapee from St. Elizabeth's Hospital. Whalen referred me to the agents who had interviewed Pearl Harlan:

James R. Rumph
Nelson K. Jennett

Mr. Rumph stated that they had already interviewed the Ojeda's as well as Pearl Harlan in their efforts to locate Roy Justin who was still a badly wanted fugitive. He pointed out that the Ojedas gave them a better impression than did Mrs. Harlan in that they calmly discussed the matter of Roy Justin. RDS: 2/12/63 L. Ron Hubbard

Roy Justin, born Burstein (or Bernstein)

The Ojeda's story was that they had known Justin's father, Burstein as being active in Scientology some years ago. Roy Justin had told them that he had been a voluntary patient at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and, of course, was free to leave whenever he chose. Apparently their story to the FBI is that they did not know the reason for the commitment.

Justin was last understood to be headed for Spokane or the Pacific Northwest to ge in touch with someone interested in Scientology there. I told him there was a man named Hanan active sometime ago in Spokane.

FBI DOSSIER ON ROY JUSTIN

1953 Roy Burstein was sentenced to five years for taking indecent liberties with a minor at Salida, Colorado; later he was granted a full unconditional pardon.

9/18/56 Washington, D.C. police files show a Roy Burstien was arrested for carrying dangerous weapons. His car contained a veritable arsenal.

3/2/58 Roy Justin was arrested for indecent acts committed with a minor child and on 9/25/58 was sentenced to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D.C. as a sex psycopath.

11/9/59 Justin was given convalescent leave on a promise to return on 11/29/59. He never did so. Previously he was treated in Philadelphia for a mental disturbance.

7/11/61 Roy Justin was arrested at Reno Nevada for violation of the Green River Ordinance for soliciting without a city permit. Pearl Harlan told the FBI agents that Justin took a vacation and went out West before she finally got him out of her house.

Roy Justin, born BBurstein (or Bernstein)

Deputy Joneson before attempting the arrest contacted the Chicago Police and learned he was wanted by them in connection with a rape case. This case was the basis for another Federal Warrant #9741 for the Northern Judicial District of Illinois dated 12/27/62, alleging unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for taking indecent liberties with a 23 month old child about 10/21/62 at 19 E. Pearson St., Chicago, Ill. (This was one of the addresses that Pearl Harlan indicated Justin went to after being compelled to leave her home.)

For this reason Joneson took two other deputies with him when he went to Mrs. Harlan's residence and learned that Justin had been gone from there for some time.

Joneson stated that Chicago police detective Sam Greiner of Area 6 Detective Bureau found papers where Justin had been living on Pearson Street indicating he had gone to 3316 San Marino St., Los Angeles, California. Los Angeles police reported Justin was there until November of 1962 and then disappeared. Justin is still a fugitive.

Joneson indicated that he interviewed Joyce Johnson, principal of the Vanderpoel School in Chicago re Justin's attempt to take one of the Harlan girls from the school. Justin was thwarted by the assistant principal of the school who handled the affair, which took place in September or October of 1961.

From some source Joneson learned that Justin was arrested on August 14, 1961 at Evergreen Park, Illinois shortly after leaving the Harlan residence on complaint #7718. He was booked for disorderly conduct consisting of panhandling in that he went into a store operated by a woman and asked for money. She was frightened by the menacing appearance of Justin and fortunately several male customers came in and held him for the arrival of the police. (There is no police report on this phase.) Justin skipped bond, his real name is Roy Burstein and his father is a lawyer in Philadelphia, Pa.

After dictating my report on Pearl Harlan on 2/4/63 I called Chicago Police Headquarters. There I obtained copy of Chicago Police Department Daily Bulletin for 11/13/62. This describes Roy Justin's latest crime and describes him as 27 years old, white male, 6'1" tall, weight 195 lbs. medium build, blond hair, and a blond Van Dyke beard at that time. His occupation is listed as self employed artist and at that time he was staying with an artist.

From the Chicago arrest record, file B258748 I learned a Roy Justin was arrested by District #3 on 2/25/62 on a traffic warrant case in the 7100 to 7300 block of Jeffrey Blvd. This man was described as 26 years old, 190 lbs., 6'0" height, white, brown eyes and (I thought black hair with light complexion. He was born on 5/25/35 in Pennsylvania and gave his residence as 3100 Liverpool Rd., Gary, Ind. Justin stated that he was the manager of some business at 1126 N. State St. Except for the black hair the rest of the description seemed to fit Roy Justin with whom we are concerned. It was dark when this arrest took place as near as I could interpret the ticket.

There was another file for a Roy Justine of 1260 N. Astor St., Chicago, Illinois in connection with assault on 8/26/61. File #RD249494. Further follow up in this case disclosed it was a Roy Justin who complained as a victim of a strong arm robbery and assault. Interviewed by police at Passavant Memorial Hospital, Chicago, Ill. he gave his residence as Dearborn 7-8245 and business phone as Ta 9-6212. He listed his occupation as a salesman. Justin was lacerated on the left side of the mouth and reported a loss of his wallet with $80, a Pennsylvania Driver's licence, and registration certificate for his 1958 Volkswagon. He stated that he would be unable to recognize the lone assaillant because he was grabbed from behind.

A police comment on this first report indicated that this was typical of a number of strong arm robberies in which the victim was intoxicated and unable to furnish much information about the robbery. A few days later Justin was interviewed again and changed his story. It was an Indiana licence on the car and the amount of money lost was slightly larger. Whether he indicated more men or not were involved is not clear but at a subsequent showup he tentatively identified three men who were subsequently convicted of a series of strong arm robberies.

INTERVIEW WITH FBI

The same date I interviewed agent John E. Whalen of the FBI at their office, 536 S. Clark St., Chicago, Ill. I told him there seemed some possibility that Mrs. Ralph Ojeda according to the story of Mrs. Pearl Harlan, had previous knowledge that Roy Justin was an escapee from St. Elizabeth's Hospital. Whalen referred me to the agents who had interviewed Pearl Harlan:

James R. Rumph
Nelson K. Jennett

Mr. Rumph stated that they had already interviewed the Ojeda's as well as Pearl Harlan in their efforts to locate Roy Justin who was still a badly wanted fugitive. He pointed out that the Ojedas gave them a better impression than did Mrs. Harlan in that they calmly discussed the matter of Roy Justin. I agreed that this was quite possible and pointed out that the Ojedas had been making money by "auditing" people who are paying a very high price for the privilege.

Roy Justin, born Burstein (or Bernstein)

The Ojeda's story was that they had known Justin's father, Burstein as being active in Scientology some years ago. Roy Justin had told them that he had been a voluntary patient at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and, of course, was free to leave whenever he chose. Apparently their story to the FBI is that they did not know the reason for the commitment.

Justin was last understood to be headed for Spokane or the Pacific Northwest to get in touch with someone interested in Scientology there. I told him there was a man named Hanan active sometime ago in Spokane.

FBI DOSSIER ON ROY JUSTIN

1953 Roy Burstein was sentenced to five years for taking indecent liberties with a minor at Salida, Colorado; later he was granted a full unconditional pardon.

9/18/56 Washington, D.C. police files show a Roy Burstien was arrested for carrying dangerous weapons. His car contained a veritable arsenal.

3/2/58 Roy Justin was arrested for indecent acts committed with a minor child and on 9/25/58 was sentenced to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D.C. as a sex psycopath.

11/9/59 Justin was given convalescent leave on a promise to return on 11/29/59. He never did so. Previously he was treated in Philadelphia for a mental disturbance.

7/11/61 Roy Justin was arrested at Reno, Nevada for violation of the Green River Ordinance for soliciting without a city permit. Pearl Harlan told the FBI agents that Justin took a vacation and went out West before she finally got him out of her house.

If time permits from other rush assignments I propose to follow up on some of the addresses and telephone numbers listed in the Chicago arrest record of Justin. Enclosing photo copies of Chicago Police Daily Bulletin.
